JAN ZADAK
Senior Vice President and Managing Director, HP EMEA

HEWLETT-PACKARD COMPANY

Jan Zadak is senior vice president and managing director for HP Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA). In this role, he chairs the regional leadership team responsible for the company strategy in EMEA, developing partnerships and key stakeholder relations for HP. As part of his role, he also leads the enterprise storage, systems and networking, software and solutions, and services businesses, including sales and marketing to enterprise and public sector customers.

Previously, Zadak led the Enterprise Business Sales organization in EMEA. He led HP's Global Accounts sales organization in EMEA and was responsible for the management of top corporate and enterprise accounts as well as for driving profitable growth across the entire portfolio of enterprise storage and systems, software and services, and for providing best-in-class total customer experience to HP's Enterprise and Public Sector customers in the region.

Zadak joined Compaq Computer in 1997 and held several senior management roles in EMEA's emerging markets, including Central and Eastern Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

Before joining Compaq, Zadak spent five years with Olivetti Czech Republic.

A native of the Czech Republic, Zadak graduated from the Czech Technical University of Prague, Faculty of Electrical Engineering in1988. He did a one year Ph.D. study program at Universitaet Erlangen-Nuernberg in Germany in 1991 and gained a Ph.D. from his alma mater, the Czech Technical University in 1992.
