REBEKAH HARVEY
Director, Learning Product Management
Certification and Learning

HEWLETT-PACKARD COMPANY

Rebekah Harvey leads the Worldwide Learning Product Management team for HP's Certification and Learning organization. In this role, Harvey is responsible for product development and management of HP's certification portfolio, a comprehensive program of more than 130 certifications spanning HP's entire product and solutions lineup.

Harvey joined HP in 2006 starting in the Consumer Exchange organization within the Personal Systems Group. She also led the networking training team for two years within the Enterprise Servers, Storage and Networking organization prior to joining the certification and learning team.

Harvey holds a Ph.D. in Education with a specialization in Training and Performance Improvement and was named a 2009 Top Young Trainer by Training Magazine. She began her career teaching adults at a small community college in Oregon. Harvey then moved into the private sector as a corporate trainer for a major wireless telecom company and since that time has managed almost every aspect of the learning function in companies both large and small.
