

Eric Clark

Vice President, Worldwide Enterprise Applications
Services, Enterprise Services
Hewlett-Packard Company

---

Eric Clark is vice president of Worldwide Enterprise Applications Services. In this role, he is responsible for developing and executing the strategy and operations for SAP, Oracle and Microsoft.

Clark brings extensive experience from the professional services industry to this role, including selling, planning and managing large projects. His background includes more than 10 years of applications consulting with Andersen Consulting and Ernst & Young prior to joining EDS. Since joining EDS, now HP Enterprise Services, in 2003, he has held several leadership roles within solutions consulting, transformation services, global sales and applications services. Additionally, Clark has held leadership positions in the Americas and the Asia Pacific & Japan regions.

Clark is APICS Certified in Production and Inventory Management (CPIM), and holds an active Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) license in the State of Texas.

Clark has a Master of Business Administration from the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas at Austin, and a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Texas at Austin.

